Alexis de Tocqueville Society

Alexis Charles-Henri Clerel de Tocqueville, member of the French Academy, studied American society and published Democracy in America. His work led him to the conclusion that Americans are committed to advancing the common good and creating opportunities for all.

The United Way of Carlisle & Cumberland County Alexis de Tocqueville Society recognizes individuals who contribute at least $10,000 in annual support to the Greater Carlisle community. Members exemplify Alexis de Tocqueville's observations on American philanthropy, in that they "make a great deal of real sacrifices to the public welfare" and "they hardly ever fail to lend faithful support to one another."
