Congratulations to May's Leaders of Tomorrow winner, Grace Echevarria! Grace is a junior at Carlisle Area High School. Her volunteer work includes gleaning and distribution at Project SHARE, serving food at the Salvation Army, volunteering with Big Brothers Big Sisters, and being heavily involved with the Cumberland-Perry Drug and Alcohol Commission's Youth Advisory Board (YAB). Grace is on the leadership team of the YAB and presents to local elementary and middle schools about making good choices. Grace is also active in Model UN and class council. She is also a member of the National Honor Society, the National English Honor Society, and the National French Honor Society.
